Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Ted McBride, who will be retiring after serving over 28 years of public service; and,

Whereas, Ted began his service in the summer of 1980 at the federal prosecutors office in Rapid City, South Dakota, and over time, became the first assistant to the United States Attorney, served in Washington, D.C. as the Deputy Director of the Advocacy Institute, was a leader in the Office of United States Attorney Karen Schreier, and then was appointed to be United States Attorney for the district of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Ted has been a model of a superior advocate for the people of South Dakota, and he has made a lifelong effort to provide this selfless and honorable service to his country, and throughout the years, Ted prosecuted some of the largest and most complicated federal cases in South Dakota history, and his distinguished record as a prosecutor has in and of itself been a great service to the people of South Dakota and the United States; and,

Whereas, Ted is perhaps best remembered for his mentorship of many other distinguished prosecutors during his legal career, and he has mentored an entire generation of South Dakota lawyers; and,

Whereas, On November 11, 2017, Ted is retiring to spend more time with his family; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 11, 2017, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, friends, and colleagues in offering him congratulations on his retirement.

TED MCBRIDE DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State